PROFILE

Full-stack developer with nearly three years shipping production software across web, mobile and API. Currently at CoVet, an AI copilot that writes veterinary clinical records, working in all three codebases: the Flutter app clinics use, the TypeScript API behind it, and the internal admin console.

EXPERIENCE

CoVet — Junior Full-Stack Developer

2025 – present

AI copilot that writes veterinary clinical records.

Flutter · Dart · Nest.js · TypeScript · Google Cloud · Firestore · Algolia · Postmark

- Led the output-pages redesign — the screens where a vet reads, edits, shares and exports a generated record — shipped in six increments behind a rollout flag.
- Built the dental chart end to end: the charting UI in Flutter, and a backend PDF generator that renders separate clinical and client-facing versions.
- Extended roles and permissions across API, app and admin console: support, enterprise, intern and veterinary-school accounts.
- Shipped practice-management integrations: a metrics dashboard with CSV export, and record export straight into the clinic's own system.
- Joined while the product was built in FlutterFlow and was part of the team's migration onto a hand-written Flutter codebase.

Digidea Apps — Full-Stack Developer

2024 – 2025

Atlas, an app used by teachers across Ecuador.

- Implemented the flow that generates student grades for Ecuador's 2024–2025 national scholarship programme — a calculation a teacher runs once and cannot get wrong, because a scholarship depends on it.
